FRANCE CONCERNED ABOUT HOHENZOLLERN

WANTS TO KEEP THE DYNASTY FROM SEIZING ANY POWER

BELIEVES THE LATTER WOULD BE BUT THE FORERUNNER OF ANOTHER WAR

IF ENGLISH DO NOTHING FRANCE MAY ACT INDEPENDENTLY IN THE MATTER

(By United Press)
Paris, Nov. 15.—France regards expulsion of the former Crown Prince of Germany as the first step necessary to keep the Hohenzollerns from seizing power in Germany and starting a new war, it was learned today.

If Great Britain decides to do nothing, France will strongly consider taking independent military action, it was said.

Premier Poincare will first try to spur the ambassador's conference to action, the United Press learned.

BRUTAL STOPPAGE OF UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

Berlin, Nov. 15.—"The brutal stoppage of unemployment relief in the Ruhr" will be the death of the Stresemann ministry.

Socialists indicated today they would make this the rallying point of a fierce attack on Chancellor Stresemann when the Reichstag opens Tuesday. They strongly condemned the Chancellor for his decision to leave two million workers and their three million dependents in the occupied areas at the mercy of France.

The decision of the Stresemann cabinet to quit trying to support the Ruhr population was made at a conference with representatives from the Rhineland and the Ruhr Tuesday as represented in United Press dispatches.

It was indicated complete stoppage of all Ruhr subsidies with which passive resistance against the French occupation last January was supported would have to be effected by November 25th, owing to the inability of Germany to stand the financial burden.

The socialists began their attack on the Stresemann cabinet when three of their leaders who held portfolios owing to socialist adhesion to the Stresemann coalition, resigned because they thought the government's action against the Bavarian mutiny was too weak.

It was said today that instead of using this for the spearhead of their attack when the Reichstag opens they will use the action of the government in cutting all financial ties between the Reich and the occupied areas.

They will introduce a motion of "no confidence" against the cabinet when the Reichstag meets.

If they can muster support to pass it, then the government will have to resign.

Chancellor Stresemann, however, was well aware today of the political situation. He had previously been negotiating with the nationalist party for their support in the Reichstag and if he could bring them into a new coalition he might master a majority sufficient to keep him in office.

The disappointment of the nationalists over the failure of the Bavarian coup staged by the Hitlerites caused a hitch in the negotiations but efforts were reported still going on.

LUDENDORFF FREED FROM HOUSE ARREST

Berlin, Nov. 15.—General Erich Ludendorff has been freed from "house arrest" under which he was placed after capture in the Hitlerite rising in Munich, it was reported today.

FRANCE MAY SEIZE PORT OF HAMBURG

GOVERNOR WALTON NEVER RECEIVED MONEY CORRUPTLY

(By United Press)
Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 15.—J. C. Walton never received any money corruptly while governor, in the knowledge of Dr. E. T. Bynum, his former executive counselor and now principal witness against him, Bynum testified before the senate court of impeachment today.

The court was engaged in airing details of the notorious Tonkawa bribery case and the question was put to Bynum by Walton's counsel.

"Did you ever know of the respondent, while in office, receiving any money corruptly?"

There was a considerable pause, senators pushing forward in their chairs to catch the witness' reply.

"No, sir," came the answer.

TRAIN STRIKES

AUTO, 4 KILLED

ACCIDENT OCCURRED THIS MORNING ON PENNSYLVANIA ROAD IN OHIO

(By United Press)
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 15.—Four men were killed here today when a Pennsylvania passenger train struck an automobile in which they were riding.

The dead: Harry C. Watson, J. C. Turner, Oscar Norville and Louis Combs, all of Columbus.

The men had left home before dawn on a hunting trip. This is the first day of the Ohio hunting season. The bodies were strewn along the track for more than a hundred yards. The train, a Pennsylvania flier, was said to be running between sixty and seventy miles an hour when the crash occurred.

The crossing is equipped with a bell signal, but the watchman had not come on duty yet.

which reached informed diplomatic quarters here today.

This information, which is understood to reflect directly the attitude of Premier Poincare of France was to the effect that if the support of Great Britain cannot be obtained then such drastic action against Germany will be undertaken by France alone.

The report today brought the first confirmation or official authority of the rumor circulated in Europe that France was planning the drastic move of seizing Hamburg.

Washington has been astounded at this news. Some diplomatic circles have expressed the belief that if France seizes Hamburg a crisis of the first magnitude might be developed between France and Great Britain because of the large British trade with that port.

The attitude of Poincare as contained in the information received here is that the French government is absolutely determined to secure the delivery of Friederich Wilhelm by Germany and will take any steps necessary to achieve this.

PAYMENTS ON HER DEBTS CANCELLED

London, Nov. 15.—The complete cessation of every kind of reparation payment by Germany was semi-officially announced last night, according to a dispatch to the Central News from Berlin.

COOLIDGE TRIES TO PLAY FAIR WITH ENTIRE NATION

PLACES NATIONAL WELFARE AND UNITY IN THE FIRST PLACE

PARTY WELFARE AND HARMONY NEXT, HIS POLITICAL FORTUNES LAST

LAWRENCE MARTIN
(Copyright 1923 by United Press)
Washington, Nov. 15.—Convening of congress here December 3rd will be in the nature of an emancipation day for President Coolidge.

For the president, chafing under a self-imposed rule of fair play, will then be able to speak many things that are on his mind, the utterances of which would give the country a clearer view of his stature as chief executive.

The president has been in this situation:

Twice a week he has been meeting a hundred or more eager news writers who demand information on every conceivable topic of domestic and international nature. Mr. Coolidge from the very beginning of his administration set himself to the task of satisfying the demand of the American people voiced through the press correspondents for information which the president holds really belongs to the people.

But at the same time, the president has been forced to be mindful of congress and of party politicians eager, some of them, to construe or misconstrue his words into material for starting up a political rumpus.

While Mr. Coolidge no doubt has a normal ambition to obtain his party's nomination in 1924, it is clear to everyone that he has steadfastly put national welfare and unity first, party welfare and harmony a close second, and his personal political fortunes last. He has worked out, therefore, his own code of playing fair with everybody concerned.

NATIONAL THIRD PARTY CONSIDERED

REPRESENTATIVE LIBERALS MET IN ST. PAUL WITH OBJECT IN VIEW

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 15.—Representative liberals of the northwest met here today to consider the advisability of launching a national third party.

They gathered at the Labor temple in response to a call for an "unofficial and informal conference" sent out by William Mahoney, president of the Minnesota Working People's Non-partisan political league.

Included among the two dozen representatives assembled are leaders of a farmers labor political organization of various northwest states.

Among those taking part in the conference are J. A. H. Hopkins, committee of 48; Miss Alice Lorraine Daley, former candidate for governor of South Dakota with the Non-partisan league endorsement; John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor; Ray McCraig, secretary Farmer-Labor party of Idaho; F. A. Pike, state chairman of the Minnesota farmer-labor party; Henry Tiegan, private secretary to Senator Magnus Johnson; Thomas Fraser, progressive republican of Rochester, Minnesota, and former candidate for attorney general, and Mahoney.

Representatives not here were expected from the Federated Farmer-Labor party and the Unity conference of Washington.

The purpose of the conference as stated today by Mahoney is "to talk over the national third party situation."

Sessions were expected to continue throughout today and tomorrow.

PLOT TO BOOST EGGS TO $1 A DOZEN IN CHICAGO ALLEGED

Chicago, Nov. 15.—A conspiracy by Chicago dealers to corner the egg market and create an artificial shortage that will boom prices to $1 a dozen was charged by Joseph Rickiewicz, secretary of the city council high cost committee, who announced an investigation would be started.

Eggs are now selling at 80 cents a dozen despite the fact storage houses are bulging with 1,200,000 cases or 30,000,000 dozen, he said. He urged a boycott by householders.

"With a daily consumption of 10,000 cases, there now is enough on hand to do for the next four months without any receipts from farmers," he said.

Ray Lane, former attorney for the committee, explained the plan whereby he said about seven South Water street dealers expect to make $9,000,000 before Christmas, with "dollar eggs."

ELLSWORTH OUT FOR GOVERNOR

FORMER SECOND DISTRICT CONGRESSMAN SEEKS REPUBLICAN NOMINATION

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—Franklin F. Ellsworth, former second district congressman will announce his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor at a dinner in Minneapolis November 22.

He will be the first to enter the field for the 1924 campaign. The dinner to be served at the West hotel at 6:30 p. m. and is being arranged by the Washington club, an organization of independent republicans in Minneapolis.

Since this club was recently organized, it has taken the place of the Lincoln club in the Mill City.

Large delegations from St. James, Mankato and other points plan to attend the dinner.

Ellsworth formerly was county attorney of Watonwan county and later was elected congressman from the second district, serving for three years. He ran for the republican nomination for governor in 1920 and 1922. Ellsworth moved to Minneapolis last year where he has been practicing law since.

BAD MISHAP PROVES LIGHTS SAVE LIVES

THE IMPORTANCE OF CARRYING LIGHTS ON ALL RIGS AFTER DARK IS DEMONSTRATED

An automobile crashing into a buggy without lights the night of Nov. 3 on a road near Faribault resulted in the death of a 14-year-old girl and serious injury to her father, Sam Braaten. His buggy was demolished and the horse killed. The accident emphasized the warning given at a recent Faribault meeting by Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, that vehicles without lights on the highways at night are a grave menace to safety.

As fewer lightless vehicles appear on the highways after dark, however, the danger increases for drivers become less alert to it, the commissioner said.

"Not until the last unlighted vehicle disappears will the menace be entirely eliminated," said Mr. Babcock. "But that may come to pass before the 1925 legislature outlaws the dark rig because of the fast growing realization that common safety requires lights at night on all vehicles on the roads."

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—Ted Fairchild, end of the University of Pennsylvania football team, who was being groomed for the quarterback position in Saturday's game with Pennsylvania State college, received word of the death of his father in Reno, Nev. Fairchild left for his home, to be gone at least 10 days.

BOTH PARTIES TO DENOUNCE THE KU KLUX KLAN, SAID

CONGRESSMAN HARRY B. HAWES MAKES STATEMENT AT ST. CLOUD TODAY

ADDRESSED THE WOMEN'S DEMOCRATIC REGIONAL CONFERENCE THERE

(By United Press)
St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 15.—Both major political parties will denounce the Ku Klux Klan as an organization dangerous to the republic, Congressman Harry B. Hawes said today.

Both presidential candidates next year will denounce the organization, he predicted.

Speaking before the Women's democratic Regional conference Hawes declared that "the motives of the two parties" in so doing would be different.

"Every leader in the democratic party without exception has failed upon all proper occasions to denounce in unmeasured terms any interference with the rights of conscience and religion," Hawes said.

CONGRESS UNMOVED BY WILSON SPEECH

ARMISTICE DAY ADDRESS FAILS TO BRING CHANGE IN FOREIGN POLICY ATTITUDE

Washington, Nov. 14.—Woodrow Wilson's Armistice day utterances produced no perceptible change in the administration or congressional attitude concerning foreign policy.

Republican senators who fought the League of Nations generally refrained from commenting on his address because, as they explained, of the obvious feeble state of the former president's health. They expressed the belief, however, that the American attitude today was more strongly against entanglement in European affairs than at any time since the close of the war and that Mr. Wilson's utterances would not affect this feeling.

Senator W. E. Borah (rep. Idaho), one of the leaders of the fight against the league, said:

"I agree with Mr. Wilson that France and Italy have made waste paper of the Versailles treaty."

Senator G. H. Moses (rep. N. H.) said:

"I do not believe Mr. Wilson's utterances now will have any more influence than they did when the Versailles treaty was up before."

Others expressed themselves as follows:

Senator W. H. King (dem. Utah): "I agree with the position taken by Mr. Wilson. The confusion existing in Europe today is directly traceable to the nonperformance by our government of a solemn obligation."

Senator T. J. Walsh (dem. Mont.): "I was much pleased with the address. No doubt it will have a profound effect on public opinion in this country and throughout the world."

Representative Evans (dem. Mont.): "The Wilson statement will have some effect in my section of the country. I believe that in four or five years this country will come around to his views, but his remarks may prove embarrassing to democratic candidates at this time."

EPISCOPAL BISHOPS REAFFIRM VIRGIN BIRTH OF CHRIST

(By United Press)
Dallas, Texas, Nov. 15.—Members of the House of Bishops of the Episcopal church in America, meeting here, went on record reaffirming the virgin birth of Christ and declaring the "denying or trifling with belief in the creed cannot but expose us to the suspicion and danger of dishonesty and unreality."

The declaration is contained in a statement signed by Bishops Andrew T. Hall, Vermont; Joseph P. Cheshire, North Carolina; Thomas F. Gales, Tennessee; R. M. Waller, Fond du Lac, and William T. Manning, New York.

The pronouncement was believed to have been made as the result of the recent controversy in which Rev. Perry Stickney, Grant of New York occupied a prominent place.

"BEDSHEET FASCISTI" TERMED U. S. MENACE

Chicago, Nov. 15.—America is imperiled by sinister fascisti whose shirts are neither black nor gray, Charles H. Dennis of the Chicago Daily News told the newly organized Association of State Universities and Allied Institutions, formed by the conference of regents here.

"The shirts of these fascisti are worn over their heads to conceal their identity," he said. "We are menaced by pseudogovernment swathed in bedsheet that knows no law, by mass misunderstanding of the essential characteristics of a freeman. This is in our America."

"Such conditions mean that the press must look to the universities for young men with enlightened idealism, with devotion to right, to liberalism, and to democracy. The press should look to the universities—not simply for brilliant writers—these gifts are important, to be sure, but for the force and fervor that characterizes those conscious of having a mission worth while."

HEAD OF ILLINOIS HEADQUARTERS IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT

IN OPINION OF FRIENDS, McADOO IS LOGICAL CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY

ROCKWELL CLAIMS FAVORABLE REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED FROM 48 STATES

(By United Press)
Chicago, Nov. 15.—What politicians consider a virtual announcement of William G. McAdoo's candidacy for the democratic nomination for president, came here today from Judge David L. Rockwell, manager of McAdoo's Illinois headquarters.

McAdoo "will offer himself for the presidential nomination of the democratic party in the opinion of his friends," Rockwell's statement declared.

The statement followed a three days' visit here by McAdoo during which he conferred with leading democrats.

Judge Rockwell is from Ravenshoe, Ohio, and opened the headquarters here several days ago.

The statement described Judge Rockwell as "managing the campaign of Mr. McAdoo's friends to secure for the former secretary of the treasury the direct nomination."

With the country calling "aloud for leadership, Mr. McAdoo is the one great figure now available in our party," Rockwell stated.

McAdoo is not now ready to speak for himself on the question of his candidacy, Rockwell said. McAdoo has indicated that "he would carefully consider every phase of the situation and determine for himself if his services are really desired by his friends and country," Rockwell stated.

"It would be presumptuous for any of his friends to attempt to speak for him," Rockwell's statement said in part.

"It would not be candid, however, for many present who have asked me if important developments are not probable should I seek to disguise the fact that McAdoo's friends believe that he will offer himself for the presidential nomination, that he will be nominated and that he will be elected."

"We have heard in the last three days from more than forty states Mr. McAdoo's supporters in 48 states have made their decision already. They intend to nominate and elect him."

McADOO AGREES WITH CAMPAIGN MANAGER

Omaha, Nebraska, Nov. 15.—Declaring he had nothing to add to the statement issued by Judge Rockwell, William McAdoo today admitted that "Judge Rockwell's statement accurately presents the situation."

He was shown the United Press story from Chicago on his proposed candidacy for the presidency and he read it with great interest.

BRUTAL STOPPAGE OF UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

Berlin, Nov. 15.—"The brutal stoppage of unemployment relief in the Ruhr" will be the death of the Stresemann ministry.

Socialists indicated today they would make this the rallying point of a fierce attack on Chancellor Stresemann when the Reichstag opens Tuesday. The socialists began their attack on the Stresemann cabinet when three of their leaders who held portfolios owing to socialist adhesion to the Stresemann coalition, resigned because they thought the government's action against the Bavarian mutiny was too weak.

There was a considerable pause, senators pushing forward in their chairs to catch the witness' reply.

BAD MISHAP PROVES LIGHTS SAVE LIVES

THE IMPORTANCE OF CARRYING LIGHTS ON ALL RIGS AFTER DARK IS DEMONSTRATED

An automobile crashing into a buggy without lights the night of Nov. 3 on a road near Faribault resulted in the death of a 14-year-old girl and serious injury to her father, Sam Braaten. His buggy was demolished and the horse killed. The accident emphasized the warning given at a recent Faribault meeting by Charles M. CONGRESS UNMOVED BY WILSON SPEECH

ARMISTICE DAY ADDRESS FAILS TO BRING CHANGE IN FOREIGN POLICY ATTITUDE

Washington, Nov. 14.—Woodrow Wilson's Armistice day utterances produced no perceptible change in the administration or congressional attitude concerning foreign policy.

EPISCOPAL BISHOPS REAFFIRM VIRGIN BIRTH OF CHRIST

(By United Press)
Dallas, Texas, Nov. 15.—Members of the House of Bishops of the Episcopal church in America, meeting here, went on record reaffirming the virgin birth of Christ and declaring the "denying or trifling with belief in the creed cannot but expose us to the suspicion and danger of dishonesty and unreality."

The declaration is contained in a statement signed by Bishops Andrew T. Hall, Vermont; Joseph P. Cheshire, North Carolina; Thomas F. Galles, Tennessee; R. M. Waller, Fond du Lac, and William T. Manning, New York.

The pronouncement was believed to have been made as the result of the recent controversy in which Rev. Perry Stickney, Grant of New York occupied a prominent place.

"BEDSHEET FASCISTI" TERMED U. S. MENACE

Chicago, Nov. 15.—America is imperiled by sinister fascist who whose shirts are neither black nor gray, Charles H. Dennis of the Chicago Daily News told the newly organized Association of State Universities and Allied Institutions, formed by the conference of regents here.

"The shirts of these fascist are worn over their heads to conceal their identity," he said. "We are menaced by pseudogovernment swathed in bed-sheets that knows no law, by mass misunderstanding of the essential characteristics of a freeman. This is in our America."

"Such conditions mean that the press must look to the universities for young men with enlightened idealism, with devotion to right, to liberalism, and to democracy. The press should look to the universities—not simply for brilliant writers—these gifts are important, to be sure, but for the force and fervor that characterizes those conscious of having a mission worth while."

MINNESOTA MAN HEADS ORGANIZATION

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 15.—The farmers national grain dealers association at its last session here yesterday elected John F. Gustafson, Winona, Minnesota, to act as president of the organization for the coming year.

Other officers are J. B. Brown, Larned, Kansas, vice president; and J. W. Shorthill, Des Moines, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

HEAD OF ILLINOIS HEADQUARTERS IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT

IN OPINION OF FRIENDS, McADOO IS LOGICAL CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY

ROCKWELL CLAIMS FAVORABLE REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED FROM 48 STATES

(By United Press)

Chicago, Nov. 15.—What politicians consider a virtual announcement of William G. McAdoo's candidacy for the democratic nomination for president, came here today from Judge David L. Rockwell, manager of McAdoo's Illinois headquarters.

McAdoo "will offer himself for the presidential nomination of the democratic party in the opinion of his friends," Rockwell's statement declared.

The statement followed a three days' visit here by McAdoo during which he conferred with leading democrats.

Judge Rockwell is from Ravenshoe, Ohio, and opened the headquarters here several days ago.

The statement described Judge Rockwell as "managing the campaign of Mr. McAdoo's friends to secure for the former secretary of the treasury the direct nomination."

With the country calling "aloud" for leadership, Mr. McAdoo is the one great figure now available in our party," Rockwell stated.

McAdoo is not now ready to speak for himself on the question of his candidacy, Rockwell said. McAdoo has indicated that "he would carefully consider every phase of the situation and determine for himself if his services are really desired by his friends and country," Rockwell stated.

"It would be presumptuous for any of his friends to attempt to speak for him," Rockwell's statement said in part.

"It would not be candid, however, for many present who have asked me if important developments are not probable should I seek to disguise the fact that McAdoo's friends believe that he will offer himself for the presidential nomination, that he will be nominated and that he will be elected."

"We have heard in the last three days from more than forty states Mr. McAdoo's supporters in 48 states have made their decision already. They intend to nominate and elect him."

McADOO AGREES WITH CAMPAIGN MANAGER

Omaha, Nebraska, Nov. 15.—Declaring he had nothing to add to the statement issued by Judge Rockwell, William McAdoo today admitted that "Judge Rockwell's statement accurately presents the situation."

He was shown the United Press story from Chicago on his proposed candidacy for the presidency and he read it with great interest.

FIVE BANDITS USE SAWED-OFF GUNS; GET $14,000 LOOT

(By United Press)

Collinsville, Ill., Nov. 15.—Five bandits with sawed off shotguns held up two clerks in the office of the Consolidated Coal company here today and escaped with the company payroll of $14,000.

The money had been brought from a Collinsville bank a few minutes before the robbery.

The bandits left by automobile on the national trail headed in the direction of St. Louis, 20 miles west. An alarm was broadcasted to St. Louis and adjacent towns.

PLEDGES AMOUNT
TO ALMOST $3,000

Satisfactory Announcement Made by President Dunn at Civic & Commerce Assn. Meeting

FISH HATCHERY IS PROMISED
Educational Committee Reports on Advisability of Using Old Court House For School

Pledges for the Civic and Commerce Association budget amounting to $2,915 were reported at the regular meeting of that organization on Wednesday evening. President H.
P. Dunn announced that this amount with the dues that will come in, will carry the association through the year very nicely, and should leave a balance with which to begin the next year.

Fish Hatchery Promised

Henry I. Cohen, chairman of a special committee on securing a fish hatchery for this county reported that much progress has been made in this direction. A meeting of officials of the state game and fish commission with local sportsmen was held and a promise secured that the natural hatchery below the Gull lake dam will be developed next season.
An inspection of this site was made before the meeting, and it is thought that the hatchery will probably be located about a mile below the dam on Gull river, where both bass and pike fry will undoubtedly be propagated.

Educational Committee

Superintendent W. C. Cobb, chairman of the educational committee, reported on the matter of using the old court house for a grade school to relieve congestion in certain buildings. He stated that it was quite natural for the public to turn to any available building when the schools are crowded.

The objection to the use of the old court house, said Mr. Cobb, seems to be that the ward in which it is located is not congested with school children, the Whittier building in this ward being the only building with a room not in use.

Parents in other wards where the schools are congested are not willing to send their children so far as would be necessary if the old court house were used. It was also pointed out that the cost of putting the court house in shape for school work would be much greater than most citizens generally realize.

There are many restrictions made by the state department of education if buildings are to be remodeled for school purposes. The plans must be submitted to the department to be passed upon, and according to Superintendent Cobb, the cost of remodeling the court house to satisfy the state department would amount to probably $25,000, which would not justify such an expenditure. Centralization of school buildings, and the changing of the court house into a school would not be carrying out such a policy.

House and Social Committee H. D. Hoffman, chairman of the house and social committee, announced that a supper would be served in connection with the next meeting of the association. He further stated that his committee has $107 in its treasury. Both announcements brought forth much applause for Mr. Hoffman's committee.

Renaming Streets

R. T. Campbell, chairman of the committee on the renaming of certain streets in the city, reported on the work of his committee. He stated that Northeast Brainerd is anxious to have this work done in order to eliminate duplication in street names, and the Improvement League of Northeast Brainerd has submitted a resolution to the city council, with a plan for naming the streets in that section.

It was brought out that Carl Zapffee has already worked out a plan for renaming the streets throughout the entire city, which could be done very easily and with the least number of changes in the principal street names. The post office department is not favorable to naming streets by letters of the alphabet, because of confusion often following.

Mr. Zapffe called attention to some of the unsatisfactory features of our present system of street naming, such as the danger of the similarity in the names of Fir and First streets, especially when spoken over the telephone.

Insurance Map of City.

Henry I. Cohen called attention to a very good insurance map of the city which he offered to loan to the committee as an aid to renaming the streets. J. F. Cibuzar explained the so-called Washington, D. C., method of street naming, which was adopted by Mason City, Iowa, his home town.

On motion the president was authorized to appoint a committee of three to wait upon the city council and ask that action on the renaming of the streets be delayed until a survey of the situation is made. Carl Zapffe, W. J. Hall and Carl Adams were appointed on this committee.

State Park and Timber Reserve

The matter of securing a state park and timber reserve for Crow Wing county, was brought up and explained by R. D. Stitzel, a representative of the Lions club, which organization brought an assistant from the state forestry department to explain the necessary steps for having such a park reserved. A committee was appointed to work in conjunction with other civic bodies in securing a park, the association going on record as favoring the proposition. F. H. Gruenhagen, J. F.

Cibuzar and Hilding Swanson were named on this committee.

Brainerd-Breezy Point Road

Walter M. Murphy reported on the Brainerd-Breezy Point road which was improved this summer under supervision of the county highway department. It was stated that the Civic and Commerce association raised $500 for this work, the county commissioners voted $1,000, $200 was pledged by each of two townships through which the road passes, and the Lincoln colony on Pelican lake agreed to raise $300.

About $1,900 was spent in improving this road, said Mr. Murphy and as much work done on it as the money would allow. While it is much improved, still more work should be done to put it in first-class condition, the principal need being for surfacing.

Thanked by Christian Science Society
A letter from the Christian Science society was read, tendering a vote of thanks to the Civic and Commerce association for chairs furnished to the society at one of its recent meetings.

A letter was read from the Woolworth company in answer to a request for a subscription on the budget. This answer stated that no provision is made in the company's by-laws for such donations. It also stated that the company's membership in the association was dropped because it was not considered that any direct benefit was derived through such membership.

Evening Schools

A resolution was read from the Northeast Brainerd Improvement League regarding evening schools in the city. The association went on record as giving its moral support to this matter and referred the proposition to the educational committee.

FISH HATCHERY IS PROMISED

Educational Committee Reports on Advisability of Using Old Court House For School

Pledges for the Civic and Commerce Association budget amounting to $2,915 were reported at the regular meeting of that organization on Wednesday evening. President H. P. Dunn announced that this amount with the dues that will come in, will carry the association through the year very nicely, and should leave a balance with which to begin the next year.

Fish Hatchery Promised

Henry I. Cohen, chairman of a special committee on securing a fish hatchery for this county reported that much progress has been made in this direction. A meeting of officials of the state game and fish commission with local sportsmen was held and a promise secured that the natural hatchery below the Gull lake dam will be developed next season.

An inspection of this site was made before the meeting, and it is thought that the hatchery will probably be located about a mile below the dam on Gull river, where both bass and pike fry will undoubtedly be propagated.

THE PLAY OF GOVERNMENTS

WITH his usual ability Frank H. Simonds shows what lies at the foundation of the present policies of the governments of the nations. England is seeking to enlist the support of the United States in a program which has for its purpose bringing pressure to bear upon France to compel France to change her present policy with regard to Germany. On the other hand France is intent upon keeping the United States out of Europe lest her intervention in Europe tend to bring a halt to the present policies of France.

Mr. Simonds sees in the play of the governments of Europe a bid for their own perpetuation. Premier Poincare's policy will soon be considered by the French people, who will express their verdict upon it, and the French premier dare not at this time allow any change in the policy of his government if that government is to successfully appeal to the electorate. In England Stanley Baldwin has been losing out. The prestige of his government is not as high as it was and this is because of the weakness of its foreign policy quite as much as the result of its failure to do anything impressive to help the unemployed. The people of Britain have come to see that internal affairs cannot be much improved until matters are settled on the continent and they are demanding a stronger foreign policy. Therefore, if the present government is to win the popular vote in the election which is drawing near a more aggressive foreign policy must be considered, and if the government makes a move in this direction, and the move fails because of the attitude of the French government, the Baldwin ministry will be able to say that it tried and that its failure lies at the door of France.

This looks very like a play of governments. The governments of Europe are playing for advantage and their eyes are on the people who must give them support if they are to retain their places. It seems then that the people are used by the governments quite as much as the governments are the servants of the people. It is true that they exist by the will of the people but the will of the people is shaped to the ends desired by the governments. The play of policies is a play of governments intent upon saving themselves, and while they may conclude, and this sincerely, that their policies are for the best interests of the nations they represent the futility of their policies is becoming more and more obvious.

The inter-play of governments at this time seems to be bereft of forcefulness and the nation that went down under the pressure of the allied forces is suffering today no more than her victors who were robbed of intelligent leadership by the struggle. This does not mean that the leaders were killed off; it means that the leaders have been robbed of their initiative and daring by the grim years through which their nations passed. Germany has called in one of the members of its deposed royal house, and this at a time when the effect of it would be to strengthen the opposition of France to any move that seemed in any way favorable to Germany. A return to the monarchy, with a member of the Kaiser's family on the throne, will not help Germany to regain the goodwill of the nations who fought her in the World war, and if such a move led to another war France is so thoroughly prepared that, unless unexpected changes came about in the association of the nations, Germany would soon be defeated.

Out of this darkness, a darkness that breeds despair, there arises no leader who can speak with a commanding voice to express an intelligent purpose. The nations drift from bad to worse and there is no Moses to lead them out of the wilderness into a better land. The world needs a great man but the great man does not appear. Leadership is mediocre, visionless and, therefore, helpless. Perhaps this is another part of the price nations pay who go to war.

NEGLECTING THE GIRLS

If the girls are to be saved by improving the quality of the boys then the emphasis on what is known as the boy problem is justified. It is certain that when boys grow better they will have a healthy influence on the girls, but if the words of a woman of considerable experience are to be taken as true, then it might be well to place more emphasis upon training girls. Mrs. Minn C. Van Winkle, chief of the women's division of the Washington department of police, said in Chicago last week: "A boy is born to be a man but a girl must be taught how to be a woman."

If a mere man expressed such a thought he might be the victim of an attack from his feminine friends, but when a woman of experience expresses such a sentiment a man may repeat it without endorsing it and throw the responsibility for it back upon the woman who said it.

The question of how much girls are to blame when they go wrong and how much boys are to blame for their going wrong is one that would divide those considering it. Probably the majority would place the blame upon the boys, whether they had evidence or not; they would just naturally conclude that the boys must be at fault, and in their eyes they would see the girl as innocent until she was led astray by some youth. But Mrs. Van Winkle says: "I find in my investigations that America's boys are getting better all the time while the girls between 12 and 20 are becoming more wayward."

Such a conclusion may be considered a tribute to the Boy Scout movement and to other organizations called into existence to help the boys of the nation, and if it is taken in this way it constitutes a splendid argument in favor of a more aggressive campaign for the purpose of organizing the girls. Social thinking has always been more or less inconsistent in persisting in blaming the boys when girls went wrong, while putting upon the girl a stigma and compelling her to bear all the burden of the shame. But gradually this will be overcome and society is now ready to admit that the girl is not always innocent nor the boy always guilty and that the boy should be compelled to bear part of the blame even though the girl is equally guilty.

If what this experienced worker says is true then the boys need to be saved from the girls, and it becomes necessary to see to it that the girls are given as much attention as the boys receive.

Another important statement of Mrs. Van Winkle is this: "Most of the wayward girls turned over to policemen come from the middle and rich classes. The poorer families think more of having a good home than dancing and drinking."

An island in Kinderhook Lake is the latest contribution of George C. Hawley of Albany, N. Y., to the scout work in that city. The new gift comprises about two acres of well-wooded land topped by a plateau on which there is an old summer residence.

Union. "This camp consists of twenty-five acres worth at least $35,000 and buildings costing $15,000, all the gift of Mr. Hawley. The island is worth $5,000, so that he has given to the Scouts up to this time about $55,000 in property and cash."

On the other hand France is intent upon keeping the United States out of Europe lest her intervention in Europe tend to bring a halt to the present policies of France.

Mr. Simonds sees in the play of the governments of Europe a bid for their own perpetuation. Premier Poincare's policy will soon be considered by the French people, who will express their verdict upon it, and the French premier dare not at this time allow any change in the policy of his government if that government is to successfully appeal to the electorate. In England Stanley Baldwin has been losing out. The prestige of his government is not as high as it was and this is because of the weakness of its foreign policy quite as much as the result of its failure to do anything impressive to help the unemployed. The people of Britain have come to see that internal affairs cannot be much improved until matters are settled on the continent and they are demanding a stronger foreign policy. Therefore, if the present government is to win the popular vote in the election which is drawing near a more aggressive foreign policy must be considered, and if the government makes a move in this direction, and the move fails because of the attitude of the French government, the Baldwin ministry will be able to say that it tried and that its failure lies at the door of France.

This looks very like a play of governments. The governments of Europe are playing for advantage and their eyes are on the people who must give them support if they are to retain their places. It seems then that the people are used by the governments quite as much as the governments are the servants of the people. It is true that they exist by the will of the people but the will of the people is shaped to the ends desired by the governments. The play of policies is a play of governments intent upon saving themselves, and while they may conclude, and this sincerely, that their policies are for the best interests of the nations they represent the futility of their policies is becoming more and more obvious.

The inter-play of governments at this time seems to be bereft of forcefulness and the nation that went down under the pressure of the allied forces is suffering today no more than her victors who were robbed of intelligent leadership by the struggle. This does not mean that the leaders were killed off; it means that the leaders have been robbed of their initiative and daring by the grim years through which their nations passed. Germany has called in one of the members of its deposed royal house, and this at a time when the effect of it would be to strengthen the opposition of France to any move that seemed in any way favorable to Germany. A return to the monarchy, with a member of the Kaiser's family on the throne, will not help Germany to regain the goodwill of the nations who fought her in the World war, and if such a move led to another war France is so thoroughly prepared that, unless unexpected changes came about in the association of the nations, Germany would soon be defeated.

Out of this darkness, a darkness that breeds despair, there arises no leader who can speak with a commanding voice to express an intelligent purpose. The nations drift from bad to worse and there is no Moses to lead them out of the wilderness into a better land. The world needs a great man but the great man does not appear. Leadership is mediocre, visionless and, therefore, helpless. Perhaps this is another part of the price nations pay who go to war.

If the girls are to be saved by improving the quality of the boys then the emphasis on what is known as the boy problem is justified. It is certain that when boys grow better they will have a healthy influence on the girls, but if the words of a woman of considerable experience are to be taken as true, then it might be well to place more emphasis upon training girls. Mrs. Mina C. Van Winkle, chief of the women's division of the Washington department of police, said in Chicago last week: "A boy is born to be a man but a girl must be taught how to be a woman."

If a mere man expressed such a thought he might be the victim of an attack from his feminine friends, but when a woman of experience expresses such a sentiment a man may repeat it without endorsing it and throw the responsibility for it back upon the woman who said it.

The question of how much girls are to blame when they go wrong and how much boys are to blame for their going wrong is one that would divide those considering it. Probably the majority would place the blame upon the boys, whether they had evidence or not; they would just naturally conclude that the boys must be at fault, and in their eyes they would see the girl as innocent until she was led astray by some youth. But Mrs. Van Winkle says: "I find in my investigations that America's boys are getting better all the time while the girls between 12 and 20 are becoming more wayward."

Such a conclusion may be considered a tribute to the Boy Scout movement and to other organizations called into existence to help the boys of the nation, and if it is taken in this way it constitutes a splendid argument in favor of a more aggressive campaign for the purpose of organizing the girls. Social thinking has always been more or less inconsistent in persisting in blaming the boys when girls went wrong, while putting upon the girl a stigma and compelling her to bear all the burden of the shame. But gradually this will be overcome and society is now ready to admit that the girl is not always innocent nor the boy always guilty and that the boy should be compelled to bear part of the blame even though the girl is equally guilty.

If what this experienced worker says is true then the boys need to be saved from the girls, and it becomes necessary to see to it that the girls are given as much attention as the boys receive.

Another important statement of Mrs. Van Winkle is this: "Most of the wayward girls turned over to policemen come from the middle and rich classes. The poorer families think more of having a good home than dancing and drinking."

Albany's Generous Donor

An island in Kinderhook Lake is the latest contribution of George C. Hawley of Albany, N. Y., to the scout work in that city. The new gift comprises about two acres of well-wooded land topped by a plateau on which there is an old summer residence.

"The island is located about a half mile from the present permanent Scout camp, also donated by Mr. Hawley," states the Albany Times.

Union. "This camp consists of twenty-five acres worth at least $35,000 and buildings costing $15,000, all the gift of Mr. Hawley. The island is worth $5,000, so that he has given to the Scouts up to this time about $55,000 in property and cash."

Those who have watched the progress of "Kathleen," the musical comedy which will be staged by James Blue of the John B. Rogers Producing company here next Monday and Tuesday, November 19 and 20, under the auspices of the Brainerd Elks lodge No. 615, at the New Park theatre, declare that this will be the biggest hit of home talent production ever staged in Brainerd.

The play is a side-splitting comedy through and through, with just sufficient pathos to it to give it balance and enough music to carry it through. It is by far the most difficult production ever staged here by local amateurs, but the characters for the leading roles have been selected with care, and are getting over big.

Plenty of Rube Comedy

Lem Underduck, Flynnville's police force and graduate detective from a correspondence school, is a scream, as is also Teckley Bramble, the best checker player in town, Arabella Wilkins, the village postmistress and gossip, and Hans Swindler, proprietor of the general store. The comedy action settles around these four, and there is plenty of comedy in the efforts of the sheriff to detect a real criminal that he may win the hand of Arabella; the battles between Lem and Teckley; the hick songs and dances introduced; Hans in his Dutch comedy part, and the ingenuity of Arabella.

Flossy the vamp, Jimmy in love with Kathleen, Kathleen herself and her uncle Michael Flynn, and unscrupulous Ned furnish the drama of the bill. The ten choruses and 14 musical numbers add charm to the play.

Elliotson-McGuire

James A. Elliotson and Miss Mollie McGuire were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at one o'clock, in the presence of immediate relatives. The Rev. E. A. Cooke officiated at the service. The young people are from Daggett Brook township where Mr. Elliotson is engaged in farming, and where they will make their future home. Their many friends join in wishing them a happy journey through life.

Premium lists for the show are now on the press and will be distributed widely, giving all ample time to prepare their classifications.

Those who intend to enter exhibits this year are advised to do so at an early date as possible to prevent confusion and perhaps some disappointments at the opening of the show.

New coops have been ordered which will be the property of the local association. These are of the latest and most approved design, and will show off the exhibits to the very best advantage.

CITY SCHOOLS IN OCTOBER

Half the Teaching Force Attended
State Educational Meet in St. Paul

EDUCATION WEEK IS NEAR

Citizens Should Cultivate the
"Visit the School" Habit

By W. C. COBB
(Superintendent of City Schools)
At the state educational meeting, St. Paul, during the first week of the present month, about half of the teaching force, grades and high school, of the Brainerd schools were in attendance. The names of the teachers attending the state meeting will be found at the close of this article.

Attention has been called a number of times recently through the editorial column of the Brainerd Daily Dispatch that Education Week is near at hand and explaining the aims and purposes for which this special week was set apart.

It is somewhat of a problem to know just what means may be the best to bring about the best results in the observance of Education Week in our locality. It would seem that the most natural instrumentality in this city would be the Parent-Teachers' organizations in the several parts of the city. Last year one of the outstanding features of Education Week was the fact that many citizens visited the schools for the first time in years and we believe that most of the visitors felt that it was worth while to take a look on the inside of the institution where their children spent a very considerable part of their time. We hope that more citizens will visit the schools during Education Week this year than last and try to cultivate in some measure "the visit the school" habit.

An Unfortunate Fiction.
An unfortunate fiction has grown up in some communities and this fiction has sometimes been fostered by children, that a visit to the schools by a parent is an indication that the parent wishes to register a complaint. When visiting the schools becomes a matter of more common occurrence, which it is becoming more and more each year, the fact of such visit will be accepted as a matter of course and expected, and parents will be in a better position to know what the schools are doing or attempting to do.

Night Schools.
Considerable interest has been taken during the past few weeks in the matter of evening classes or night school, as it is often called, for the fall and winter months. Many cities have come to a realization that public education with its equipment of extensive buildings and teaching force need not necessarily confine itself to ages from six to eighteen years or to the hours of nine a. m. to four p. m.

The state has recognized the need of state encouragement and assistance in certain lines of night school work and offers a certain amount of financial assistance under certain conditions for a special class of work. The state aided departments for evening classes at present include only English and Americanization work for citizenship and a certain number of industrial lines looking toward the advancement of citizens along the lines of their various occupations.

Preparing For Citizenship
Cities, however, at their own option may establish evening classes along any useful lines that appeal to a sufficient number to warrant the formation of a class. Last year several very successful evening classes in public speaking were maintained for a considerable part of the year, and it ought to be only a question of how many people are interested in a given line of study to determine what class or classes for adults might be established during the present year. It seems quite probable that an evening class for foreigners to learn the English language and prepare for citizenship will be established under the auspices of the board of education, and other classes are subjects under discussion at the present time in various quarters of the city.

From almost any point of view it would seem that Brainerd ought to be a very favorable locality in which to encourage and foster night school effort. The considerable number of foreigners in Brainerd, who have not yet taken out their final citizenship papers, and the extensive industrial population in this city, many of whom might be looking forward to advancement in their several lines, all offer good argument for evening classes.

The good effects of the physical and health training legislation passed at the last session of the legislature is already manifest in our local schools. The play grounds in the several schools during the recess periods are assuming an entirely different aspect from heretofore. System and plan are taking the place of disorder and confusion. Teachers are directing the play and participating in the same with the children and a much larger proportion of the children are getting into the spirit of wholesome play. We believe that this will be the solution of many of the unfortunate evils of the playground and will add to rather than detract from the real fun. By the end of the year competitive field days will probably be arranged between the several schools.

Girls' Physical Training.
In the high school, it would seem as though the girls were for the first time coming into their own along physical training and health lines. The use of the high school gym by the girls alone this year would amply justify the expenditure for improvement made by the board of education. The third floor, instead of being used for two hours a day by a small group of boys during the basketball season, will hereafter be one of the busy places for the entire student body and in use during the entire school day and during many evenings as well.

Additional School Room
At the last meeting of the Civic & Commerce association in Brainerd, in discussing the subject of additional school room facilities for this city, the suggestion was offered that the old court house might be secured at a very reasonable figure and put in condition as a grade building or possibly an upper grade building to provide for an overcrowded condition in case of an adverse vote by the people for a new high school building in the very near future.

Any suggestion looking toward the solution of the ultimate school building plan for a city is worthy of consideration, however, the difficulties and objections should be as carefully considered as the favorable features.

New High School

When a new high school building is provided for, it would seem inevitable that relief in the matter of congestion would be secured in all quarters of the city for the time being at least, except possibly in the Lowell district. Just at present the second ward, or Whittier school, is the only ward wherein the school building has any vacant rooms to offer. The remodeling of an old building for school purposes, even if the building were a school building to begin with, is a difficult and expensive proposition, much more so than the average individual would realize. A general remodeling of a building for education, however, the difficulties school purposes, other than moderate changes and repairs, requires the submission of plans to the state department of education for approval by their technical school building inspector. In school building plans, the emphasis in state requirements is placed on the following points: light, heat, ventilation, sanitation and safety. These requirements are all based on fixed and definite standards and it is for this reason that general remodeling requires a skillful architect and often costs out of proportion to the final results.

The location of the old court house, so far as present needs are concerned, is rather unfortunate in that it is not located in a ward where congestion is pronounced, and in order to draw from a crowded ward it is most readily accessible to that part of the first ward where fewest pupils reside.

From the standpoint of ultimate economy in the matter of heat, janitor's service and supervision, it would appear to be desirable not to unduly increase the number of small buildings in the city as a whole but rather to plan toward greater concentration, looking toward twelve or fourteen room buildings rather than a large number of four, six and eight room buildings. The subject however, worthy of consideration and discussion, with a vision of what Brainerd may require some years hence.

Broad Survey of City
It would seem that what this city will really need very shortly should be a broad survey of the city as a whole, looking toward the location of school buildings to meet the probable requirements in the future.

High School Operetta

The operetta, given recently by the high school people under the direction of Mr. White assisted by Miss Opsahl, was a very creditable and successful entertainment and netted the school something over $100. From the proceeds of this entertainment, the radio equipment in the physics department was completed and now the high school is provided with a very excellent outfit of radio apparatus, with amplifier and accessories, which will add much to the interest and enjoyment in the physics department.

Domestic Science Department
The girls of the domestic science department under the direction of their supervisor, Miss Uglum, will attempt to feed the hungry Rotarians some time next week.

CITY SCHOOLS

IN OCTOBER

Half the Teaching Force Attended
State Educational Meet in St. Paul

EDUCATION WEEK IS NEAR

Citizens Should Cultivate the
"Visit the School"
Habit

By W. C. COBB

(Superintendent of City Schools)
At the state educational meeting, St. Paul, during the first week of the present month, about half of the teaching force, grades and high school, of the Brainerd schools were in attendance. The names of the teachers attending the state meeting will be found at the close of this article.

Attention has been called a number of times recently through the editorial column of the Brainerd Daily Dispatch that Education Week is near at hand and explaining the aims and purposes for which this special week was set apart.

It is somewhat of a problem to know just what means may be the best to bring about the best results in the observance of Education Week in our locality. It would seem that the most natural instrumentality in this city would be the Parent-Teachers' organizations in the several parts of the city. Last year one of the outstanding features of Education Week was the fact that many citizens visited the schools for the first time in years and we believe that most of the visitors felt that it was worth while to take a look on the inside of the institution where their children spent a very considerable part of their time. We hope that more citizens will visit the schools during Education Week this year than last and try to cultivate in some measure "the visit the school" habit.

An Unfortunate Fiction.

An unfortunate fiction has grown up in some communities and this fiction has sometimes been fostered by children, that a visit to the schools by a parent is an indication that the parent wishes to register a complaint. When visiting the schools becomes a matter of more common occurrence, which it is becoming more and more each year, the fact of such visit will be accepted as a matter of course and expected, and parents will be in a better position to know what the schools are doing or attempting to do.

Night Schools.

Considerable interest has been taken during the past few weeks in the matter of evening classes or night school, as it is often called, for the fall and winter months. Many cities have come to a realization that public education with its equipment of extensive buildings and teaching force need not necessarily confine itself to ages from six to eighteen years or to the hours of nine a. m. to four p. m.

The state has recognized the need of state encouragement and assistance in certain lines of night school work and offers a certain amount of financial assistance under certain conditions for a special class of work. The state aided departments for evening classes at present include only English and Americanization work for citizenship and a certain number of industrial lines looking toward the advancement of citizens along the lines of their various occupations.

Preparing For Citizenship

Cities, however, at their own option may establish evening classes along any useful lines that appeal to a sufficient number to warrant the formation of a class. Last year several very successful evening classes in public speaking were maintained for a considerable part of the year, and it ought to be only a question of how many people are interested in a given line of study to determine what class or classes for adults might be established during the present year. It seems quite probable that an evening class for foreigners to learn the English language and prepare for citizenship will be established under the auspices of the board of education, and other classes are subjects under discussion at the present time in various quarters of the city.

From almost any point of view it would seem that Brainerd ought to be a very favorable locality in which to encourage and foster night school effort. The considerable number of foreigners in Brainerd, who have not yet taken out their final citizenship papers, and the extensive industrial population in this city, many of whom might be looking forward to advancement in their several lines, all offer good argument for evening classes.

The good effects of the physical and health training legislation passed at the last session of the legislature is already manifest in our local schools. The play grounds in the several schools during the recess periods are assuming an entirely different aspect from heretofore. System and plan are taking the place of disorder and confusion. Teachers are directing the play and participating in the same with the children and a much larger proportion of the children are getting into the spirit of wholesome play. We believe that this will be the solution of many of the unfortunate evils of the playground and will add to rather than detract from the real fun. By the end of the year competitive field days will probably be arranged between the several schools.

Girls' Physical Training.

In the high school, it would seem as though the girls were for the first time coming into their own along physical training and health lines. The use of the high school gym by the girls alone this year would amply justify the expenditure for improvement made by the board of education. The third floor, instead of being used for two hours a day by a small group of boys during the basketball season, will hereafter be one of the busy places for the entire student body and in use during the entire school day and during many evenings as well.

Additional School Room

At the last meeting of the Civic & Commerce association in Brainerd, in discussing the subject of additional school room facilities for this city, the suggestion was offered that the old court house might be secured at a very reasonable figure and put in condition as a grade building or possibly an upper grade building to provide for an overcrowded condition in case of an adverse vote by the people for a new high school building in the very near future.

Any suggestion looking toward the solution of the ultimate school building plan for a city is worthy of consideration, however, the difficulties and objections should be as carefully considered as the favorable features.

New High School

When a new high school building is provided for, it would seem inevitable that relief in the matter of congestion would be secured in all quarters of the city for the time being at least, except possibly in the Lowell district. Just at present the second ward, or Whittier school, is the only ward wherein the school building has any vacant rooms to offer. The remodeling of an old building for school purposes, even if the building were a school building to begin with, is a difficult and expensive proposition, much more so than the average individual would realize. A general remodeling of a building for sideration, however, the difficulties school purposes, other than moderate changes and repairs, requires the submission of plans to the state department of education for approval by their technical school building inspector. In school building plans, the emphasis in state requirements is placed on the following points: light, heat, ventilation, sanitation and safety. These requirements are all based on fixed and definite standards and it is for this reason that general remodeling requires a skillful architect and often costs out of proportion to the final results.

The location of the old court house, so far as present needs are concerned, is rather unfortunate in that it is not located in a ward where congestion is pronounced, and in order to draw from a crowded ward it is most readily accessible to that part of the first ward where fewest pupils reside.

From the standpoint of ultimate economy in the matter of heat, janitor's service and supervision, it would appear to be desirable not to unduly increase the number of small buildings in the city as a whole but rather to plan toward greater concentration, looking toward twelve or fourteen room buildings rather than a large number of four, six and eight room buildings. The subject however, worthy of consideration and discussion, with a vision of what Brainerd may require some years hence.

Broad Survey of City

It would seem that what this city will really need very shortly should be a broad survey of the city as a whole, looking toward the location of school buildings to meet the probable requirements in the future.

High School Operetta

The operetta, given recently by the high school people under the direction of Mr. White assisted by Miss Opsahl, was a very creditable and successful entertainment and netted the school something over $100. From the proceeds of this entertainment, the radio equipment in the physics department was completed and now the high school is provided with a very excellent outfit of radio apparatus, with amplifier and accessories, which will add much to the interest and enjoyment in the physics department.

Domestic Science Department

The girls of the domestic science department under the direction of their supervisor, Miss Uglum, will attempt to feed the hungry Rotarians some time next week.

A WIERD, BEAUTIFUL SCENE
Charred Remains Brought to Brainerd by Police This Morning

A fiery cross, supposedly that of the Ku Klux Klan, was raised in a corn field just south of the Oak street road near the Dodd corner on Wednesday evening. Many autoists drove out to view the spectacle which presented a wierd, but beautiful appearance.

It was reported that several persons attired in the dress of the Klan, were seen on Wednesday evening near the corner of South Broadway and Maple streets, but whether there was a meeting of the organization could not be learned.

Brainerd Will Have Opportunity of Hearing Miss Doris Schmale Sunday Afternoon (Contributed)

On Sunday afternoon, Brainerd will have the opportunity of hearing one of its own folk. Miss Doris Schmale lived in Brainerd for a number of years and considers Brainerd is her "home town."

Her ascent in the musical world has been rapid. Miss Lucille Stevenson of Chicago, her present teacher, has named her as her most promising student, and will take her abroad with her the coming spring for study.

A bright future is assured her, and Brainerd may be justly proud of its daughter. A large and appreciative audience next Sunday at the New Park theatre will both give and receive a blessing. It will hear the sweet and inspiring voice of this young artist and, by its presence, give well deserved encouragement.

LECTURE ON VOICE CULTURE
Anthem Singing Also Explained by Mr. Brown at the First Meeting Held

The choral organization which was started on Friday evening, Nov. 2nd, held its first rehearsal on Friday night of last week. Roy T. Brown, the director, says that the prospects of building up an enthusiastic chorus of fifty or more voices are excellent. It is necessary to have such a number if anything of real music value is to be attained.

The first rehearsal was given over to a lecture on voice culture by Mr. Brown, and to the singing of an anthem, the object of which was to get the different voices accustomed to each other. In short, it was a sort of get-acquainted rehearsal.

Every individual who loves to sing is invited to join this chorus. It is of utmost importance to those who desire a better knowledge of voice culture, that they become a part of the organization, for a ten-minute lecture on voice culture will be given by Mr. Brown at the beginning of each rehearsal, which will be held every Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, unless a different day and hour are decided upon at some later date.

Mr. Brown asks that all interested in vocal culture, and especially choral work, make a special effort to be present at the next rehearsal on this Friday evening, Nov. 16th.

SINGER, A BRAINERD GIRL

Brainerd Will Have Opportunity of Hearing Miss Doris Schmale Sunday Afternoon

On Sunday afternoon, Brainerd will have the opportunity of hearing one of its own folk. Miss Doris Schmale lived in Brainerd for a number of years and considers Brainerd is her "home town."

Her ascent in the musical world has been rapid. Miss Lucille Stevenson of Chicago, her present teacher, has named her as her most promising student, and will take her abroad with her the coming spring for study.

A bright future is assured her, and Brainerd may be justly proud of its daughter. A large and appreciative audience next Sunday at the New Park theatre will both give and receive a blessing. It will hear the sweet and inspiring voice of this young artist and, by its presence, give well deserved encouragement.

NEW CHORAL SOCIETY IN CITY

Roy T. Brown is Director of Association Striving to Build up Membership of Fifty

LECTURE ON VOICE CULTURE

Antem Singing Also Explained by Mr. Brown at the First Meeting Held

The choral organization which was started on Friday evening, Nov. 2nd, held its first rehearsal on Friday night of last week. Roy T. Brown, the director, says that the prospects of building up an enthusiastic chorus of fifty or more voices are excellent. It is necessary to have such a number if anything of real music value is to be attained.

The first rehearsal was given over to a lecture on voice culture by Mr. Brown, and to the singing of an anthem, the object of which was to get the different voices accustomed to each other. In short, it was a sort of get-acquainted rehearsal.

Every individual who loves to sing is invited to join this chorus. It is of utmost importance to those who desire a better knowledge of voice culture that they become a part of the organization, for a ten-minute lecture on voice culture will be given by Mr. Brown at the beginning of each rehearsal, which will be held every Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, unless a different day and hour are decided upon at some later date.

Mr. Brown asks that all interested in vocal culture, and especially choral work, make a special effort to be present at the next rehearsal on this Friday evening, Nov. 16th.

QUESTION ETHICS OF FOOTBALL SCOUTING

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 14.—Ethics of "scouting," no doubt, will be discussed the next time the rules committee of the intercollegiate football association get together.

As long as it can be debated that scouting is in no way immoral, that there is nothing practical or ethical against it and that it does not threaten the safety of the game, the officials hardly can consider it worthy of serious consideration.

"Scouting" is an old custom of sending a trained observer to watch a future opponent in action and bring back some ideas of its style of play and the way to defend against it.

Some colleges consider the evil of scouting more seriously than others. It has been told that Glenn Warner, the present Pittsburgh coach, on several occasions served notice on opposing teams just what plays he was going to use.

Stories have been related to rival coaches in friendly arguments, giving diagrams of the plays with which they maintained they were going to win.

At Rutgers this year, one of the assistant managers of the team met five scouts from West Virginia, gave them a hearty welcome and handed them choice seats to the game.

Another unusual incident was reported this season from Ohio, where two coaches in the conference exchanged all their plays, without the signals, of course, so that scouting would not be necessary.

Many of the big teams in the east do their preparation work for the big games behind locked doors, with guards posted outside.

Such precautions are foolish when it is considered how many big games each season are won by trick plays or new formations which would have been unsuccessful if enemy eyes had seen them.

The most successful teams depend upon perfect execution of simple plays. Most all of the plays used by this year's Notre Dame team are old fundamentals, made effective by absolute perfection of execution.

Harvard has used the same plays with success year after year. Scouts found that it was not the equipment of the Harvard teams so much as their clever and scientific use of the plays with which they had been equipped.

All the best scouts at the command of Princeton were sent to the Army-Notre Dame game, and they went back to Princeton with a complete tabulation of all the best gaining plays used by Notre Dame against the Cadets.

But it was wasted time spent in scouting, as Notre Dame used the same plays, but their execution was so perfect, their fundamentals of play so sound that Princeton couldn't stop them.

The Tigers knew all of the Notre Dame formation, but they were unable to stop them.

MINNESOTA WILL CLASH WITH IOWA

Minneapolis, Nov. 14.—While Minnesota was inactive Saturday, football history was written in the defeat of Notre Dame and Wisconsin in the west and in Harvard's victory over Princeton in the east. This week Middle Western fans will again center their attention on Northrop Field where Iowa, eliminated from the championship race, and Minnesota, which can leap at the pennant if it wins, will fight things out in what promises to be one of the season's hardest games.

Iowa's only defeats have come at the hands of Illinois and Michigan, which scored 9 and 10 respectively against the feared Hawkeyes. Minnesota is the only Big Ten team with a clean slate, and a victory over Iowa will mean that the Minnesota-Michigan game the following week will determine whether Gopher or Wolverine is to go into a tie with the Illini for top honors.

Spaulding will throw against Iowa an eleven that has been chosen by the severest policy of test and elimination. In the tests, every man has had an equal chance. In the eliminations, injury has stacked the cards against some gallant players who might otherwise be wearing the Maroon and Gold on Homecoming day. Freddie Oster, first string fullback, is definitely out of it, with his injured shoulder blade.

Minnesota fans feel confident that every position will be filled against Iowa by the man available who is best qualified to do the job. Cooper at center if he is in shape, Gay and Abrahamson at guards, Cox and Gross at tackles, and Eklund and Merrill at ends have everyone's confidence. In the backfield, Captain Martineau, Carl Lidberg and Malcolm Graham seem certain to start. Loss of Oster leaves until the last minute the decision on a fourth in the backfield, with Peterson and Herman Ascher apparently receiving most consideration.

COLLINS DENIES HE WILL PILOT SENATORS; DOESN'T WANT BOTHEI

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—Reports that a deal was pending which would send him to Washington as manager were denied today by Eddie Collins, captain and second baseman of the Chicago American league baseball club, upon his return from a hunting trip in the Maine woods.

"I still want to concentrate on my playing and not bother about the cares of management," said Collins. "There is time enough for that later. I will be back with the White Sox again next season, ready to do my best."

FIRPO'S SULKINESS DISPLEASES LATIN WHO CAME TO CHEER

Buenos Aires, Nov. 14.—A dispatch to La Nacion from Lapaz, Bolivia, says that Luis Angel Firpo incurred the displeasure of the residents of the city by his indifferent attitude toward the enthusiastic reception they accorded him.

Firpo, the dispatch says, was in a sulky mood when he arrived at the Lapaz railway station. He was met by cheering crowds who were displeased when their idol hastily fled in an automobile from their presence, and they raised hostile cries when he refused to raise his hat in acknowledgment of their greetings.

EVIDENCE OFFERED THAT ONE PERIOD LASTED AN HOUR

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Reports to the effect that the first quarter of the Michigan-U. S. Marine football game at Ann Arbor on Saturday, supposed to have been 15 minutes, lasted well on to an hour, are supported in the stories of the game in the Detroit papers.

In one paper the detail of play takes up more than twice as much space as the detail on the other periods. At the end of the first quarter detail the reporter wrote: "A long discussion among the officials followed regarding the timing of the first quarter. It was decided that the first quarter had ended."

According to reports from Ann Arbor the Marines were bitter over the mistake, said to have been caused when the timer's watch had stopped, feeling the accident had cost them the game.

UTERITZ SHOWERED WITH FLOWERS BY MICHIGAN ADMIRERS

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 15.—No prima donna ever became ill and received more expressions of sympathy flowers and every form of consolation than Irwin Uteritz of Oak Park, Ill., start quarterback of the Michigan football team, who sustained a broken leg in the game with the Marines Saturday, his last game for the Wolverines.

The diminutive pilot of Michigan teams for the last three years lies in the University hospital here literally surrounded by flowers, sent by his admirers all over the country.

Today two more huge boxes of flowers from Chicago were delivered to his room at the hospital and the institution looks more like a florist shop than an invalid's headquarters.

New York, Nov. 15.—Sammy Mandell of Chicago, won the judge's decision over Babe Herman of New York, in a 12 round bout here. Mandell was the aggressor throughout the contest, keeping Herman on the go most of the time. Herman had a hard time landing solid punches.

Rockne Will Not Help Cadets Train for Navy

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Knute Rockne, coach of the Notre Dame football team, has declined an invitation to help prepare the West Point Cadets for their annual gridiron contest with the Navy, as he could not find it convenient to get away from his own team. Head Coach John J. McEwan said.

Pleasing Program at Park Tonight
"The most pleasing program presented in weeks," seems to have been the consensus of opinion of those privileged to witness "Peg O' My Heart" and the wonderful tango dancing of Miss Ernestine Whiteley and her companion, John Williams, both of Minneapolis, at the New Park theatre.

The fact that both have received the best professional instruction by foreign masters was evident in the dash and brilliance of their dancing which did not satisfy the audience, which clamored repeatedly for more. The program will be repeated this evening.

WHITTIER PARENTS-TEACHERS

Principal Miss Louise Barrett Makes Sincere Heart to Heart Talk

The Whittier Parent-Teachers association met on Tuesday evening and held a very interesting meeting.

The remarks of Miss Louise Barrett, the principal, were exceedingly sincere and straightforward. She said the teachers were gratified because of the co-operation they are receiving from parents. The teachers and parents should work together to correct faults in the children which will later become bad habits. Parents should never be offended when told by the teacher that the child is doing wrong at school. Children do things when away from home or among other children that they know are not right. Teachers discover such things and in telling the parents are only trying to have the child kept from repeating the wrong act.

There has been much tardiness this year, and Miss Barrett asked that when there is no good excuse for such tardiness, the parent should be frank about so stating. Teachers can hardly instill truthfulness in children whose parents set a bad example with a questionable excuse.

She asked that parents keep a closer watch over what their children do and say and write. She stated that the state legislature has passed a bill permitting a child to be excused from school to attend a class in religious instruction. The time spent in such a class will be allowed as school work. Persons or organizations desiring to form such classes are now free to do so.

The association president, Mrs. A. M. Opsahl, reported on the state parent-teachers meetings held recently in St. Paul. One round table conducted by Mrs. W. H. Gemmell of Brainerd was very well organized and very helpful suggestions were brought out.

Announcements of some length were made regarding the activities of the state president of the parent-teachers association, Mrs. E. G. Quamme, who will be here on Thursday and speak at the high school at 8 o'clock. This is a public meeting, and all members of the parent-teachers associations throughout the city and any other interested persons should attend.

Mrs. Quamme is an intelligent and forceful speaker and a woman of great personal charm, and it is hoped that she will be met with a record audience.

Prof. A. J. Wilson was called upon and spoke in words of praise regarding the state university and other colleges. He said that he was gratified at the number of Brainerd young people who are attending the higher schools and hoped that the parents would do nothing to hinder their progress.

Miss Mary Walsh announced that she had several graded lists of books suitable for children of various ages and with the approach of Christmas would be more than willing to assist parents in selecting good books.

There has been and is now agitation regarding relieving of principals of some of their teaching duties that they may better supervise their buildings, assist their teachers and attend to the handling of innumerable matters that do not pertain to one teacher alone. There is a real need for such an arrangement and it is hoped that Brainerd school children may soon benefit by such an arrangement.

The picture, "Children of the Dust," that will soon be shown under the auspices of the association has been very highly recommended by several disinterested persons, who have seen it elsewhere. People of the city are advised that they need feel no doubt regarding the merits of this picture.

Men's Club

The Men's club of the Bethlehem Lutheran church will meet tomorrow evening in the church parlors and will be entertained by A. M. Opsahl and Theodore Newgard. Everybody welcome.

Rawlinson to Be Seen Here in New Type Role

Herbert Rawlinson, who has won the underworld a lot more sympathy than it probably deserves by the human quality that he has displayed in the many crook parts that he has portrayed on the screen, will be seen in the role far afield from the type in which he is so well known at the Lyceum Theatre Friday and Saturday.

Lloyd's Most Spectacular Comedy is "Why Worry?"

The hills around Culver City resounded with the infuriated firing of more than a thousand Mexicans arrayed in rival fighting units. The booming of cannons made natives tremble, in fear of earth shocks. Incoherent commands were hurled in every direction by excited generals.

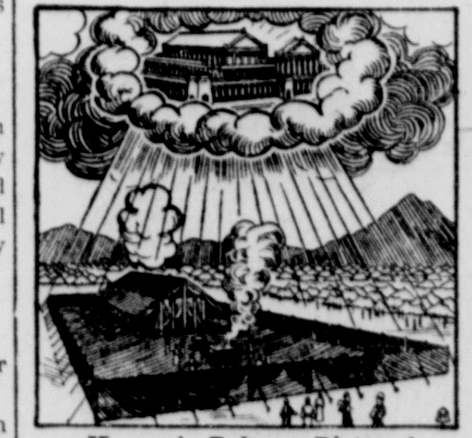

It might have been a great dramatic spectacle in the making for the movies, yet it was all being done in the spirit of fun—the spirit that permeates Harold Lloyd's greatest Pathé comedy, "Why Worry?"

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Large Audience Hears Lecture on "Response of History to the Voice of God" (Contributed)

There was a good attendance at Gardner hall Tuesday to hear the lecture, "The Response of History to the Voice of God." Evangelist N. J. Aalborg spoke of the four great universal empires that have filled the world, viz: Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome as symbolized by the four beasts of Dan. 7: The glory of Babylon is ended. No city so vast had stood on the world before it. No city with a history so long has even yet appeared. Its ruins fulfill the prophecy. When we turn from this picture of the past to contemplate the present condition, we are at first struck with astonishment at the small traces which remain of so vast and wonderful a metropolis. "The broad walls of Babylon are utterly broken down, and her high gates burned with fire," Jer. 51:58. "The golden city hath ceased," Isa. 14:4. "The glory of the kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency," is become "as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorah," Isa. 13:19. "And Babylon shall become heaps," Jer. 51:37. Vast mounds, shapeless and unsightly, are scattered over the entire region.

There was an excellent gathering Wednesday night. Evangelist M. E. Andeson spoke with much freedom of "Jesus, the True Messiah," and the great sacrifice made by Him in our behalf. Mr. Anderson said: "There is no salvation apart from Christ and His atoning blood."

Evangelist N. J. Aalborg will speak tonight, topic, "Heaven's Palaces Pictured," the hub of the Bible. What is it? Hear it, the lecture will be illustrated.

On Friday night Evangelist Anderson will speak, topic, "Where God and Man Meet." The atoning blood of Christ. Do not miss a single lecture as they are connective. Both evangelists are much pleased with the success of the meetings thus far.

QUESTION ETHICS OF FOOTBALL SCOUTING

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 14.—Ethics of "scouting," no doubt, will be discussed the next time the rules committee of the intercollegiate football association get together.

As long as it can be debated that scouting is in no way immoral, that there is nothing practical or ethical against it and that it does not threaten the safety of the game, the officials hardly can consider it worthy of serious consideration.

"Scouting" is an old custom of sending a trained observer to watch a future opponent in action and bring back some ideas of its style of play and the way to defend against it.

Some colleges consider the evil of scouting more seriously than others. It has been told that Glenn Warner, the present Pittsburgh coach, on several occasions served notice on opposing teams just what plays he was going to use.

Stories have been related to rival coaches in friendly arguments, giving diagrams of the plays with which they maintained they were going to win.

At Rutgers this year, one of the assistant managers of the team met five scouts from West Virginia, gave them a hearty welcome and handed them choice seats to the game.

Another unusual incident was reported this season from Ohio, where two coaches in the conference exchanged all their plays, without the signals, of course, so that scouting would not be necessary.

Many of the big teams in the east do their preparation work for the big games behind locked doors, with guards posted outside.

Such precautions are foolish when it is considered how many big games each season are won by trick plays or new formations which would have been unsuccessful if enemy eyes had seen them.

The most successful teams depend upon perfect execution of simple plays. Most all of the plays used by this year's Notre Dame team are old fundamentals, made effective by absolute perfection of execution.

Harvard has used the same plays with success year after year. Scouts found that it was not the equipment of the Harvard teams so much as their clever and scientific use of the plays with which they had been equipped.

All the best scouts at the command of Princeton were sent to the Army-Notre Dame game, and they went back to Princeton with a complete tabulation of all the best gaining plays used by Notre Dame against the Cadets.

But it was wasted time spent in scouting, as Notre Dame used the same plays, but their execution was so perfect, their fundamentals of play so sound that Princeton couldn't stop them.

The Tigers knew all of the Notre Dame formation, but they were unable to stop them.

MINNESOTA WILL CLASH WITH IOWA

Minneapolis, Nov. 14.—While Minnesota was inactive Saturday, football history was written in the defeat of Notre Dame and Wisconsin in the west and in Harvard's victory over Princeton in the east. This week Middle Western fans will again center their attention on Northrop Field where Iowa, eliminated from the championship race, and Minnesota, which can leap at the pennant if it wins, will fight things out in what promises to be one of the season's hardest games.

Iowa's only defeats have come at the hands of Illinois and Michigan, which scored 9 and 10 respectively against the feared Hawkeyes. Minnesota is the only Big Ten team with a clean slate, and a victory over Iowa will mean that the Minnesota-Michigan game the following week will determine whether Gopher or Wolverine is to go into a tie with the Illini for top honors.

Spaulding will throw against Iowa an eleven that has been chosen by the severest policy of test and elimination. In the tests, every man has had an equal chance. In the eliminations, injury has stacked the cards against some gallant players who might otherwise be wearing the Maroon and Gold on Homecoming day. Freddie Oster, first string fullback, is definitely out of it, with his injured shoulder blade.

Minnesota fans feel confident that every position will be filled against Iowa by the man available who is best qualified to do the job. Cooper at center if he is in shape, Gay and Abrahamson at guards, Cox and Gross at tackles, and Eklund and Merrill at ends have everyone's confidence. In the backfield, Captain Martineau, Carl Lidberg and Malcolm Graham seem certain to start. Loss of Oster leaves until the last minute the decision on a fourth in the backfield, with Peterson and Herman Ascher apparently receiving most consideration.

COLLINS DENIES HE WILL PILOT SENATORS; DOESN'T WANT BOTH

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—Reports that a deal was pending which would send him to Washington as manager were denied today by Eddie Collins, captain and second baseman of the Chicago American league baseball club, upon his return from a hunting trip in the Maine woods.

"I still want to concentrate on my playing and not bother about the cares of management," said Collins. "There is time enough for that later. I will be back with the White Sox again next season, ready to do my best."

FIRPO'S SULKINESS DISPLEASES LATINOS WHO CAME TO CHEER

Buenos Aires, Nov. 14.—A dispatch to La Nacion from Lapaz, Bolivia, says that Luis Angel Firpo incurred the displeasure of the residents of the city by his indifferent attitude toward the enthusiastic reception they accorded him.

Firpo, the dispatch says, was in a sulky mood when he arrived at the Lapaz railway station. He was met by cheering crowds who were displeased when their idol hastily fled in an automobile from their presence, and they raised hostile cries when he refused to raise his hat in acknowledgment of their greetings.

EVIDENCE OFFERED THAT ONE PERIOD LASTED AN HOUR

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Reports to the effect that the first quarter of the Michigan-U. S. Marine football game at Ann Arbor on Saturday, supposed to have been 15 minutes, lasted well on to an hour, are supported in the stories of the game in the Detroit papers.

In one paper the detail of play takes up more than twice as much space as the detail on the other periods. At the end of the first quarter detail the reporter wrote: "A long discussion among the officials followed regarding the timing of the first quarter. It was decided that the first quarter had ended."

According to reports from Ann Arbor the Marines were bitter over the mistake, said to have been caused when the timer's watch had stopped, feeling the accident had cost them the game.

UTERITZ SHOWERED WITH FLOWERS BY MICHIGAN ADMIRERS

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 15.—No prima donna ever became ill and received more expressions of sympathy flowers and every form of consolation than Irwin Uteritz of Oak Park, Ill., start quarterback of the Michigan football team, who sustained a broken leg in the game with the Marines Saturday, his last game for the Wolverines.

The diminutive pilot of Michigan teams for the last three years lies in the University hospital here literally surrounded by flowers, sent by his admirers all over the country.

Today two more huge boxes of flowers from Chicago were delivered to his room at the hospital and the institution looks more like a florist shop than an invalid's headquarters.

The mighty Blue and White football eleven which defeated Park Rapids high by a score of 19 to 6 ended their season in a haze of glory.

LANDIS MOVES TO AID WEAKER TEAMS

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Strengthening of weaker teams in the major leagues through giving a team of lower standing preference to players on whom waivers have been asked will be one of the suggestions of changes to the rules to be submitted for action at the joint meeting of the major leagues here on Dec. 12, according to an announcement made by Commissioner Landis today.

DELANEY GETS DRAW WITH BERT COLIMA; McLEAN IS WINNER

Los Angeles, Nov. 15.—In a last round comeback, James J. Delaney, light heavyweight of St. Paul, obtained a draw in his fight with Bert Colima, claimant to the Pacific coast middleweight title in the main event at Vernon arena.

Stewart McLean, Minnesota bantamweight, won a decision over California Joe Lynch in the semifinal.

MANDELL IS VICTOR OVER BABE HERMAN IN NEW YORK BOUT

New York, Nov. 15.—Sammy Mandell of Chicago, won the judge's decision over Babe Herman of New York, in a 12 round bout here, Mandell was the aggressor throughout the contest, keeping Herman on the go most of the time. Herman had a hard time landing solid punches.

Rockne Will Not Help Cadets Train for Navy

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Knute Rockne, coach of the Notre Dame football team, has declined an invitation to help prepare the West Point Cadets for their annual gridiron contest with the Navy, as he could not find it convenient to get away from his own team, Head Coach John J. McEwan said.

Pleasing Program at Park Tonight

"The most pleasing program presented in weeks," seems to have been the consensus of opinion of those privileged to witness "Peg O' My Heart" and the wonderful tango dancing of Miss Ernestine Whiteley and her companion, John Williams, both of Minneapolis, at the New Park theatre.

The fact that both have received the best professional instruction by foreign masters was evident in the dash and brilliance of their dancing which did not satisfy the audience, which clamored repeatedly for more.

The program will be repeated this evening.

Weekly Prayer Meeting

On Thursday evening at 7:30 the usual weekly prayer meeting will be held in the Bethlehem Lutheran church. Members and friends are urged to attend these meetings.

Principal Miss Louise Barrett Makes Sincere Heart to Heart Talk

The Whittier Parent-Teachers association met on Tuesday evening and held a very interesting meeting. The remarks of Miss Louise Barrett, the principal, were exceedingly sincere and straightforward. She said the teachers were gratified because of the co-operation they are receiving from parents. The teachers and parents should work together to correct faults in the children which will later become bad habits. Parents should never be offended when told by the teacher that the child is doing wrong at school. Children do things when away from home or among other children that they know are not right. Teachers discover such things and in telling the parents are only trying to have the child kept from repeating the wrong act.

There has been much tardiness this year, and Miss Barrett asked that when there is no good excuse for such tardiness, the parent should be frank about so stating. Teachers can hardly instill truthfulness in children whose parents set a bad example with a questionable excuse.

She asked that parents keep a closer watch over what their children do and say and write. She stated that the state legislature has passed a bill permitting a child to be excused from school to attend a class in religious instruction. The time spent in such a class will be allowed as school work. Persons or organizations desiring to form such classes are now free to do so.

The association president, Mrs. A. M. Opsahl, reported on the state parent-teachers meetings held recently in St. Paul. One round table conducted by Mrs. W. H. Gemmell of Brainerd was very well organized and very helpful suggestions were brought out.

Announcements of some length were made regarding the activities of the state president of the parent-teachers association, Mrs. E. G. Quamme, who will be here on Thursday and speak at the high school at 8 o'clock. This is a public meeting, and all members of the parent-teachers associations throughout the city and any other interested persons should attend.

Mrs. Quamme is an intelligent and forceful speaker and a woman of great personal charm, and it is hoped that she will be met with a record audience.

Prof. A. J. Wilson was called upon and spoke in words of praise regarding the state university and other colleges. He said that he was gratified at the number of Brainerd young people who are attending the higher schools and hoped that the parents would do nothing to hinder their progress.

Miss Mary Walsh announced that she had several graded lists of books suitable for children of various ages and with the approach of Christmas would be more than willing to assist parents in selecting good books.

There has been and is now agitation regarding relieving of principals of some of their teaching duties that they may better supervise their buildings, assist their teachers and attend to the handling of innumerable matters that do not pertain to one teacher alone. There is a real need for such an arrangement and it is hoped that Brainerd school children may soon benefit by such an arrangement.

The picture, "Children of the Dust," that will soon be shown under the auspices of the association has been very highly recommended by several disinterested persons, who have seen it elsewhere. People of the city are advised that they need feel no doubt regarding the merits of this picture.

Men's Club

The Men's club of the Bethlehem Lutheran church will meet tomorrow evening in the church parlors and will be entertained by A. M. Opsahl and Theodore Newgord. Everybody welcome.

Rawlinson to Be Seen Here in New Type Role

Herbert Rawlinson, who has won the underworld a lot more sympathy than it probably deserves by the human quality that he has displayed in the many crook parts that he has portrayed on the screen, will be seen in the role far afield from the type in which he is so well known at the Lyceum Theatre Friday and Saturday.

"Homeward Bound" to Be Shown

The Paramount picture, "Homeward Bound," is due for a showing at the Lyceum Theatre next Sunday. Thomas Meighan appears in the stellar role with Lila Lee, his leading woman.

Lloyd's Most Spectacular Comedy is "Why Worry"

The hills around Culver City resounded with the infuriated firing of more than a thousand Mexicans arrayed in rival fighting units. The booming of cannons made natives tremble, in fear of earth shocks. Incoherent commands were hurled in every direction by excited generals.

It might have been a great dramatic spectacle in the making for the movies, yet it was all being done in the spirit of fun—the spirit that permeates Harold Lloyd's greatest Pathe comedy, "Why Worry?"

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Large Audience Hears Lecture on "Response of History to the Voice of God"

There was a good attendance at Gardner hall Tuesday to hear the lecture, "The Response of History to the Voice of God." Evangelist N. J. Aalborg spoke of the four great universal empires that have filled the world, viz: Babylon, Medo-Persia, Grecia and Rome as symbolized by the four beasts of Dan. 7: The glory of Babylon is ended. No city so vast had stood on the world before it. No city with a history so long has even yet appeared. Its ruins fulfill the prophecy. When we turn from this picture of the past to contemplate the present condition, we are at first struck with astonishment at the small traces which remain of so vast and wonderful a metropolis.

The broad walls of Babylon are utterly broken down, and her high gates burned with fire." Jer. 51:58. "The golden city hath ceased." Isa. 14:4. "The glory of the kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency," is become "as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorah." Isa. 13:19. "And Babylon shall become heaps." Jer. 51:37. Vast mounds, shapeless and unsightly, are scattered over the entire region.

There was an excellent gathering Wednesday night. Evangelist M. E. Anderson spoke with much freedom of "Jesus, the True Messiah," and the great sacrifice made by Him in our behalf. Mr. Anderson said: "There is no salvation apart from Christ and His atoning blood."
